

University of New Haven

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

College Factual has ranked the University #1 in the country out of more than 400 colleges and universities offering homeland security, law enforcement, and firefighting majors, and #1 in the state and within the top 20 in the country for criminal justice and corrections degrees.

Program Description

As a criminal justice major at the University of New Haven, you'll join one of the nation's most established and diversified criminal justice programs. It's a program that allows you to customize a major that fuses your interests with pragmatic, sought-after learning opportunities that will lead you to a successful and fulfilling career in this challenging and rewarding field.

You will gain an acute understanding of crime-solving and public safety issues as you learn to navigate the intricate fields of criminal justice and shape the future of our justice system.

Concentrate on Your Interests

Supplement the knowledge you gain in your core criminal justice classes by specializing in an area you are most passionate about, including the following:

- Correctional Rehabilitation and Supervision
- Crime Analysis
- Crime Victim Services
- Investigative Services
- Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention
- Police Science

The University of New Haven has been recognized as one of The 387 Best Colleges in the country by The Princeton Review.

Learn from Professionals Who Have Done It All and Seen It All

Our faculty members, all of whom hold advanced degrees in their specialty, have been police chiefs, FBI special agents, federal law enforcement agents, fraud investigators, and attorneys. All have active connections in their field, so they consistently bring you the latest developments in the ever-unfolding practice of criminal justice.

Cooperative Work Education Program: Getting Real Before You Graduate

At the University of New Haven's Henry C. Lee College, you can put your classroom learning to work through our Cooperative Work Education Program.

Through a co-op, you can take an entire term in a real-world placement – paid employment in your field of interest. When you're on the job, you'll learn both by observation and by participating in meaningful work for the organization that's employing you. The College will monitor your progress, and your job performance will be evaluated jointly by the College and your employer.

It's a great opportunity. And it's one way that literally pays to learn by doing.

Work placements have included:

- Alexion Pharmaceuticals
- Mayor's Office, New Haven
- Connecticut Junior Republic
- New Haven Fire Department
- Emergency Management Department, New Haven
- New Haven Police Department

Resources and Facilities

The University's Henry C. Lee Institute of Forensic Science houses advanced forensic and crime-scene technologies that you won't find at the majority of police departments across the country. In fact, we are a go-to resource for law enforcement agencies around the globe. Our students gain hands-on, practical training in this same state-of-the-art facility.

The building houses the National Crime Scene Training and Technology Center, a high-tech forensic room, a crisis management center, and three classrooms. The cutting-edge learning center uses the latest in virtual instruction and touch screen technology to highlight in-depth information on the various areas of forensic science for students.

We offer a variety of unique centers for the training of criminal justice professionals:

- Center for Advanced Policing
- Center for Analytics
- Center for Cyber Crime and Forensic Computer Investigation
- Crime Victim Study Center
- The Institute of Law & Public Affairs
- Institute for Social Justice
- Institute for the Study of Violent Groups

“ My goal is for my students to be able to connect the knowledge they acquire in the classroom with practical applications in the real world, which will help them with future academic or career-oriented goals.”

DANIEL K. MAXWELL

Lecturer, Department of Criminal Justice

MPA • University of New Haven

M.S. in Criminal Justice • University of New Haven

B.A. in Sociology • University of Miami

About Us

The University of New Haven, founded on the Yale campus in 1920, is a private, coeducational university situated on the coast of southern New England. It's a diverse and vibrant community of more than 7,000 students with campuses across the country and around the world.

Within our colleges and schools, students immerse themselves in a transformative, career-focused education across the liberal arts and sciences, fine arts, business, healthcare and health sciences, engineering, public safety, and public service. More than 100 academic programs are offered, all grounded in a long-standing commitment to collaborative, interdisciplinary, project-based learning.

At the University of New Haven, the experience of learning is both personal and pragmatic, guided by a distinguished faculty who care deeply about individual student success. As leaders in their fields, faculty provide the inspiration and recognition needed for students to fulfill their potential and succeed at whatever they choose to do.

Internships

Internships allow students to take what they learn in the classroom and apply it in the field — with guidance from trained professionals who work with the application of such skills on a daily basis. In addition to the benefits of applying lessons learned in class, you will have the chance to network and make contacts. The more people you know, or who know you, the easier it will be for you down the road. Criminal justice students have completed internships at:

- Boston Police Department
- Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives (ATF)
- Connecticut Department of Corrections
- Connecticut State Police
- Department of Homeland Security
- Drug Enforcement Admin. (DEA)
- Electric Boat
- Fairfield Police Department
- Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI)
- Internal Revenue Service (IRS)
- Massachusetts State Police
- Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS)
- New Haven Arson Squad
- New Haven Police Department
- Pawtucket Police Department
- Philadelphia Police Department
- Pratt and Whitney
- Providence Police Department
- Suffolk County Crime Lab
- U.S. Air Force
- U.S. Army — Military Police
- U.S. Marshals Service
- U.S. Secret Service
- U.S. Attorney's Office
- United Technologies
- Yale Child Study Center

To learn more, scan the QR Code or visit:
newhaven.edu/criminaljustice

Your Success Starts Here

For more information,
or to arrange a visit, contact

Office of Undergraduate Admissions

☎ 203.932.7319

✉ admissions@newhaven.edu

🖱 newhaven.edu